Highlights from FCM's AC 2022

It's hard to believe it's been two months since more than 2,000 municipal elected officials convened in Regina, Saskatchewan, for FCM's first in-person Annual Conference and Trade Show since 2019.

Over four energizing days on-site and online, we came Together for Recovery and left united around ways to build a better future for communities across Canada. The opportunities to reconnect, network, and share the latest municipal trends and policies all made for a memorable experience for delegates, exhibitors, sponsors, and staff. And that's what makes the FCM family so strong—we are always committed to expanding our knowledge to give Canadians the best they deserve. Annual Conference (AC) 2022 provided opportunities to do exactly that.

FCM is pleased to present the AC 2022 highlights report to recall and share conference highlights with your municipal colleagues and teams. You'll see in this report the incredible impact left by our keynote speakers, exhibitors, sponsors, and of course, the host city. If you were unable to attend AC 2022 in person, this document will give you a taste of the many crucial topics we covered and will inspire you to join us for AC 2023, in Toronto next May.

Thank you for your tremendous engagement during the conference and let's continue on the road to recovery, together!

—The FCM team
