Dear Mayor and Councillors.

I would like to express my support for the conversion of one tennis court at Centennial Park to four permanent pickleball courts.

At present there are 15 purpose-built tennis courts on the Saanich Peninsula, but there are no purpose-built pickleball courts. Temporary pickleball courts in the new multi-sports box are not a realistic solution as lacrosse will be the priority tenant, blocking off the facility for extended periods of time.

I understand that the cost of conversion will be borne by local pickleball associations, so there should be no cost to taxpayers.

Please approve the conversion.

Yours very truly,

Chris Goodburn
