Dear Mayor and Council,

The Victoria Regional Pickleball Association (VRPA) together with the VRPA Saanich Peninsula Subcommittee, the Peninsula Community Pickleball Club (PCPC) and the Peninsula Tennis Club (PTC) have prepared this joint statement of understanding regarding the motion to convert court #1 into 4 purpose built pickleball courts.

The intent of this letter to is to confirm for council that all parties who have signed this letter acknowledge and agree to the following:

- All parties successfully engaged in meaningful discussion of the motion to convert court #1 into 4 purpose-built pickleball courts.
- Victoria Regional Pickleball Association and the Peninsula Community Pickleball Club together will fund (or raise funding as needed) to cover the cost of the court conversion.

Additionally, at the request of the Peninsula Tennis Club, VRPA and PCPC agree to:

- Work with district staff on a long-term booking block booking arrangement for the benefit of both sports, and

- Work with PTC and district staff to ensure appropriate sound mitigation between the tennis and pickleball courts is addressed as necessary, and
- Work with PTC and district staff to ensure appropriate off court seating (waiting area) is provided for waiting players

We thank council for their support in moving this motion forward for the benefit of both sports.

Prepared and submitted by Cindy Barton, all parties have consented to including their digital signatures below.

Sincerely,

Dave Scott
